BEYOND THE SUNSET, A TRAVEL MEMOIR; VOLUME 2, EXPANDING MY HORIZONS TO HIT BOOKSHELVES IN TIME FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Patagonia, Uganda, and places far beyond: How a bookworm turned flower child turned healthcare executive found joy in traveling the world

Mechanicsburg, PA (December 6, 2022) - Structured in a series of essays, anecdotes and adventures, this travel memoir tells the story of a small-town Pennsylvania girl who stretched her horizons, tested her limits, and traveled all over the globe.

This second of two volumes in the Beyond the Sunset series continues to follow author Sherry Knowlton and her husband, Mike, as they journey all over the globe, driven by a love of wild animals, wild places, and a thirst for new experiences. Sherry and Mike are beckoned to Africa more than a dozen times but have also enjoyed other destinations in more than 50 countries and throughout six continents.

These essays address topics as diverse as local markets, incredible animal encounters, natural wonders, and intriguing people met along the way. They also include practical travel tips gained through firsthand experience.

"Beyond the Sunset, a travel memoir; Volume 2: Expanding My Horizons will make you want to book a flight across the globe before you reach the last page. Knowlton's novel is both a how-to guide for travel and a deeply inspirational tale of adventure and growth. Beyond the Sunset is encouraging because it details Knowlton's desire to broaden her horizons, something we should all seek to do." - Steven Williams, author of the Prose Edda Series and an avid world traveler.

Augmented by stunning photos by Knowlton and her husband Mike, Beyond the Sunset is a love letter to all those explorers with a nine-to-five job and a zest for travel.

About the Author:

Sherry Knowlton is the author of the award-winning Alexa Williams suspense series, including Dead of Autumn and Dead on the Delta. When not writing, she works with her health care consulting business and loves to travel the world. Many of her travel stories are documented in the Beyond the Sunset series. She and her husband live in the mountains of Southcentral Pennsylvania.
